

SURF'S UP: One of the more enthusiastic volunteers for a bodyboarding clinic at North Beach yesterday was Joshua Taylor, the two-year-old son of former US tour winner Alistair Taylor, who gives his son a helping hand on to the board.

Picture: SHERELEE CLARKE

Durban's beaches abuzz with festival activity

By TASH REDDY

DURBAN'S popular Golden Mile beaches were buzzing in holidaymakers are expected to flock to Durban to catch some waves and enjoy the beach sport, music, stalls, fun and

Karla Costa-Taylor and former US tour winner Alistair Taylor, who both now live in Durban. They took part in the contest, with Alistair winning the men's

The petite bodyboarding powerhouse grew up in Brazil and moved to South Africa a few years ago with Alistair.

At the Natal Triale last

weekend weather

MIN/MAX TODAY

DURBAN 9°C 25°C

Coastal: Fine

Interior: Fine

Pietermaritzburg	3°C	23°C
Port Shepstone	11°C	24°C
Richards Bay	10°C	23°C
Newcastle	0°C	20°C
Ladysmith	-1°C	19°C
Johannesburg	2°C	15°C
Cape Town	12°C	20°C
Bloemfontein	-1°C	16°C
Port Elizabeth	9°C	24°C

Tomorrow

Coastal: Fine

Interior: Fine

RAINFALL

This month: 5.0mm

Year to date: 481mm

Month average: 59mm

Yearly average: 1009mm

TIDES

High tide: 19:17, 06:50

Low tide: 12:59, 00:47

Sunset: 17:08

Sunrise: 06:52

Weather for ski boats and diving

Page 23

snapshots

Pyramid probe

THE Department of Trade and Industry has launched an investigation into allegations that Millennium Leisure International (MLI) – the subject of a report in The Independent on Saturday last week – is operating an illegal pyramid scheme.

The department has asked