FISH HOEK SURFER IN TOP SPOT

Fish Hoek’s Ian Thurtell clinched the top spot in the men’s division at the Sport Unlimited Cape Classic, held over the weekend at beaches around the City.

The event marked the start of the South African Bodyboarding Association (SABA), national tour for 2008 and has been regarded as an overall success by the riders and the organisers, the Western Province Bodyboarding Association (WPBA).

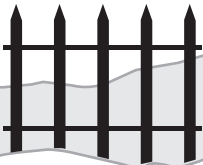

“The entire event has been a huge success, we couldn’t have asked for more. We had good waves throughout the contest and I am very pleased with the level of commitment from both the riders and my WPBA team. I would like to thank all involved in making this happen,” said WPBA Chairman, Deon Meyer.

In other action, Camps Bay’s Sacha Specker claimed victory in both the Pro and Drop Knee divisions, having recently returned from Hawaii and Australia where he won a US Bodyboarding Association event in California. The juniors division title was claimed by Christopher Elliott, from Hout Bay. The women’s division went to South African Women’s Champion, Pamela Bowren. The boys’ division was won by Bas Koopmans from Philadelphia and the master title went to 2007 SABA Tour Champ, Mike van Huyssteen from Durban.
